Third Sunday of Easter May 1, 2022

FIRST READING: The apostles perform many signs and wonders among the people. Many are added to their numbers (Acts 5:12-16)

PSALM: Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting (Psalm 118).

SECOND READING: John, caught up in the spirit, envisions the glorified Lord, the first and the last, the one who lives (Revelation 1:9-11a, 12-13, 17-19).

GOSPEL: The risen Christ comes to his disciples with peace and the Spirit. The absent Thomas doubts (John 20:19-31).

LITURGICAL REFLECTION- DIFFICULTY, SURVIVAL, AND GLORY

In Revelation, John the Evangelist tells us what we can expect as followers of the risen Jesus: distress, endurance, and a kingdom. Although we are only eight days into our fifty-day Easter feasting, we cannot ignore the distress weighing down our daily lives. Jesus' resurrection does not erase individual suffering, but his glorious triumph over death cultivates endurance in our hearts. We remember that Jesus did not spare himself, and we ask for the strength to endure as he did. Imitating Christ helps us grow as members of God's royal family. As beloved citizens of the Kingdom of God, we recognize our kinship with all people. Peter demonstrates his care for others as he heals multitudes of broken, suffering people. In the Gospel, Thomas accepts his own spiritual healing when Jesus helps him to believe. In times of difficulty, survival, and glory, we borrow Thomas' declaration of faith: "My Lord and my God!" Stewardship Reflections In the Gospel we find the Apostles dejected and discouraged. Poor Peter decides to throw in the towel on the whole disciple thing and go back to his old way of life, declaring, "I'm going fishing." The other apostles decide to follow him. But Jesus is with them in their "back slide." He is waiting for them on the shore and even makes them breakfast. This constant process of turning back to the Lord is the essence of a stewardship way of life.

Good stewards are not necessarily those who have mastered some perfect formula for the giving of time, talent and treasure. Good stewards simply have more confidence in the goodness of the Lord than fear of their own failure. They get back up after each fall. And little by little, good stewards find themselves becoming like the "after Easter Disciples." Saint Peter and the apostles rejoiced in being persecuted for living as Jesus' disciples. Are you as "guilty" as they were? Can you be convicted of feeding and tending his sheep?" (Stewardship Reflection, Catholic Stewardship Consultants, Inc. 2022/04/5)
