THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

Today's Scripture Readings

FIRST READING: Before anything was created, the wisdom of God was brought forth (Proverbs 8:22-31).

PSALM: O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth! (Psalm 8).

SECOND READING: God's love has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us (Romans 5:1-5).

GOSPEL: Everything that the Father has is mine; the Spirit will take from what is mine and declare it to you (John 16:12-15).

LITURGICAL REFLECTION: BIBLICAL ROOTS OF THE TRINITY

Today's readings show some biblical roots of what Christians would later call the Trinity. Proverbs showcases the role of Wisdom in the work of creation, portrayed as a reality outside of God but integrated into God's work of forming the heavens and the earth. We join the psalmist in sharing Wisdom's delight in God's handiwork: "O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth" (Psalm 8:2). In his letter to the Romans, Paul writes of peace with God through Jesus, and the love of God received through the Holy Spirit, distinguishing God, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit while also displaying their abiding unity. Finally, in the farewell discourse from John's Gospel, Jesus—who had earlier spoken of himself as Son of the Father—promises his friends that they will receive the Spirit of truth that will teach and guide them after his departure.

Stewardship Reflections: In the Gospel from Saint John, we learn that God holds back nothing of Himself to us. Jesus tells His disciples that the Holy Spirit “will take from what is mine and declare it to you. Everything the Father has is mine.’ Thus we find ourselves drawn in the midst of this Trinitarian love. In fact, if the mystery of the Holy Trinity is an ocean which to swim, the “water” that makes up that ocean is love. What, then, should the response be of the Christian steward to this mystery? All we can do is worship and offer our lives back to God in total gratitude for calling us to live in the richness of such unfathomable love. This week, let’s re-invite God into the very middle of our lives and make sure the way we spend our time and energy each day shows Him our gratitude for His many gifts to us, but above all the gifts of Himself in the Trinity, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Families and the Gospel (John 16:12-15)
 The words of Jesus in today's gospel, "I have many things to say to you, but you cannot hear them now," could have been said by any parent. It can be frustrating because our desire to guide is often misinterpreted or poorly received. We cannot program our children. We can only teach, lead and trust the Spirit of truth will guide them.
