FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Today's Scripture Readings

FIRST READING: Heed the voice of the LORD. It is something very near to you, already in your hearts; you only need to carry it out (Deuteronomy 30:10-14).

PSALM: Turn to the Lord in your need, and you will live (Psalm 69) or Psalm 19.

SECOND READING: All things were created through and for Christ Jesus (Colossians 1:15-20).

GOSPEL: To be a neighbor, show love by treating others with mercy, as did the Good Samaritan (Luke 10:25-37).

LITURGICAL REFLECTION: RIGHT RELATIONSHIPS

Our God is about relationships. In the first reading, Moses reminds the Israelites that the laws, which are already in their hearts, keep them in right relationship with the God who loves them so much that they always find forgiveness. Centuries later, along comes Jesus, whom Paul describes to the Colossians as "the image of the invisible God," the very embodiment of this God of love. In his parable about the good Samaritan, Jesus explains how the law of love overrules the letter of the law. Instead of answering the question "Who is my neighbor?" Jesus demonstrates that it is not about who is worthy of being loved, but rather loving as God loves—about being neighbor, about being the good Samaritan. Jesus wants us to continue his work as images of this God of love by loving all people, even those who seem to be our enemies.

Stewardship Reflections: The type of hospitality and generosity the Good Samaritan showed in his care to the wounded and forsaken man is essential to a stewardship way of life. A disciple experiences Jesus' presence in all God's children; the poor and the wealthy; the young and the old; the sick and the healthy.

Do we have this same hospitable openness to those who may feel on the outskirts of our parish family and of our wider community? What can we do to become more aware of the needs of others and be open to setting aside our own plans? May we share our time and treasure with an abundance of generosity. Loving our neighbor is the evidence of loving our God.

Families and the Gospel

(Luke 10:25-37)

Children learn by watching us. Do they see you helping others like the Good Samaritan, or do they see you avoiding others like the Levite in today's gospel. Worry more about what your children see in YOUR LIFE than what they see on TV.

Abortion: We are by no means blind to the sufferings of mothers and the problems confronting some families, but Abortion and Infanticide are not the solution. We shall always support every effort to alleviate human suffering and to solve personal and family problems, but we insist that a solution MUST respect the life of the innocent, defenseless, unborn child
