FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Today's Scripture Readings

FIRST READING: Rejoice and be glad for I will spread prosperity over Jerusalem like a river, and the wealth of nations like an overflowing torrent (Isaiah 66:10-14c).

PSALM: Let all the earth cry out to God with joy (Psalm 66).

SECOND READING: May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ (Galatians 6:14-18).

GOSPEL: Jesus sends his disciples out in pairs to bring his peace and proclaim the kingdom of God (Luke 10:1-12, 17-20 [1-9]).

LITURGICAL REFLECTION: GOOD NEWS IS ON THE WAY

This week, in the midst of summer, the scriptures greet us with joy, peace, mercy, and more peace! Sounds a little like Advent, doesn't it? We often associate the prophet Isaiah with that preparatory season, and our first reading rings with such words as exult, comfort, and rejoice. The Israelites had reason to rejoice, for they had returned, come home, to a rebuilt Jerusalem from their exile in Babylon.

In the Gospel, the seventy-two disciples who were sent out have their own "homecoming," returning to Jesus from spreading the Good News of the Kingdom and preparing people for the "advent" of Jesus into their cities and towns on his long road to Jerusalem. Like the exiles in Isaiah, the disciples return rejoicing.

The Good News, the Kingdom of God, is coming, even in summer. As today's psalm reminds us, "Shout joyfully to God, all the earth!"

Stewardship Reflections: In His wisdom, Christ sent His disciples out not as individuals but in pairs, as teams. They could lean on each other for mutual support and encouragement, helping each other to stay on task and to put their heads together to pray and problem-solve. This teamwork approach is just as relevant today.

It points to the reality that when we invite others to embrace the Good News of the Gospel, we are not inviting them only into a belief system, but into a relationship with Christ. As a Christian steward and disciple of Jesus Christ in today’s culture and society let us remember that every action we take in Jesus name is a step in building the Kingdom of God.

Families and the Gospel (Luke 10: -1-12, 17-20)

Just like the seventy two disciples sent out by Jesus in today’s gospel, families are expected to be MISSIONARIES. By our lives, words and life style we proclaim peace, commitment, fidelity and respect to a culture caught up with violence and gratification.

Abortion: “The world is a dangerous place, not because of those who do evil, but because of those who look on and do nothing.”

“Mothers hold their children’s hands for a short while, but their hearts forever.”
