ELEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Today's Scripture Readings

FIRST READING: For me you shall be a kingdom of priests, a holy nation." Those are the words you are to say to the Israelites.' (Exodus 19: 2-6a).

PSALM: We are his people, the sheep of his flock (Psalm 100).

SECOND READING: For if, while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, how much more can we be sure that, being now reconciled, we shall be saved by his life. (Romans 5: 6-11).

GOSPEL: And when he saw the crowds he felt sorry for them because they were harassed and dejected, like sheep without a shepherd. (Matthew 9:36—10:8).

Norms for the Distribution and Reception of Holy Communion: The Christian faithful are to be instructed that the Catholic faith teaches that Christ, whole and divine, and the true Sacrament, is received even under only one species, and consequently that as far as the effects are concerned, those who receive under only one species are not deprived of any grace that is necessary for salvation. While Holy Communion under both kinds has a fuller sign, any of the faithful who wish to receive Holy Communion under the species of bread alone are to be granted their wish. C.f. General Instruction of the Roman Missal, 2011, Number 282. Norms for the Distribution and Reception of Holy Communion under Both Kinds in the Diocese of United States of America, 2112, Numbers 17-20.

Stewardship Reflections:

Jesus makes clear the connection between discipleship with him and service and leadership to those who are lost and in need. Whenever the stewards of the Church become more attentive to their own well-being than to their mission to be Christ's body in the world, they will become lost.

How are you planning to give your time, talent and treasure to the lost sheep in today's world? The Christian heart cannot be indifferent. Let your heart be moved to an act of stewardship or assistance for one of them. In your time and place, how can you respond to the call to be a laborer for the harvest? (2023, At Home With the Word, LTP)
