SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

Today's Scripture Readings

FIRST READING: The LORD, merciful and gracious, rich in kindness and faithfulness
(Exodus 34:4b-6, 8-9).

PSALM: Glory and praise for ever! (Daniel 3: 52, 53, 54, 55)

SECOND READING: Brothers and sisters, rejoice. Live with one another in peace, and the God of peace will be with you (2 Corinthians 13:11-13).

GOSPEL: God did not send the Son to condemn the world, but to give it abundant life (John 3:16-18).

LITURGICAL REFLECTION: GRACE AND ETERNAL LIFE: -

Moses is a man after our own hearts, for haven't we all dealt with more than our share of stiff-necked people? Indeed, haven't we all gotten a little stiff-necked ourselves at times? Complaining . . . impatient . . . quick to anger. How lucky for Moses—how lucky for all of us—that God is exactly the opposite! And we don't even have to guess about it. The Lord tells us so directly. Accordingly, Moses does what we all need to do. Even with the tablets in hand, he bows down and asks for God's forgiveness and grace. Encouraging us to live together in peace—and in God's favor—the Apostle Paul knows all about this grace, joyfully invoking Christ's grace on us along with God's love and the Holy Spirit's. "Rejoice," he says. And when it comes to rejoicing, John offers us the gladdest words of all: the assurance of eternal life through Jesus.

Stewardship Reflections:

Stewardship is the imitation of our Most Holy Trinity. God gave Himself, in the person of His Son, for the love of us. We must love this God back now by giving our lives to Him. The more we give of ourselves to God, the more we will find the "grace of the Lord, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit within us."

The Triune God of the universe invites us to an ever-deepening intimacy with Him when we make our lives a loving gift to Him and to others through the stewardship way of life.. (www.CatholicSteward.com, 4/21/2023)
