TODAY'S SCRIPTURE READINGS

FIRST READING: The Lord is God in the heavens above and on earth below
(Deuteronomy 4:32-34, 39-40).

PSALM: Blessed the people the Lord has chosen to be his own (Psalm 33).

SECOND READING: You received a Spirit of adoption, through whom we cry,
"Abba, Father!" (Romans 8:14-17).

GOSPEL: Baptize them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit (Matthew 28:16-20).

LITURGICAL REFLECTION: In the context of today's focus on the mystery of the Holy Trinity, the reading calls our attention to the action of God, who reveals himself in three persons: God the Father, Jesus the Son, and the Holy Spirit. God the Father, out of love for the world, sent his Son into the world in order to save it. Through the death and resurrection of the Son, we have been given the gift of the Holy Spirit. As three persons, God acts always as a God of love; he does not condemn the world but acts to save it.

The Gospel also calls attention to the response that is required of us. God's love for us calls us to respond in faith by professing our belief in God's son, Jesus, and the salvation that he has won for us. This profession of faith is a sign of the work of the Holy Spirit in our lives.

Stewardship Reflections:

Today, we celebrate an essential doctrine of our Catholic faith – the Most Holy Trinity. It expresses God as three Divine Persons, unified in One Divine nature. The Trinity is one of the most complex aspects of our faith. It is a topic we could never exhaust nor fully understand until we see God face to face.

Although it is incomprehensible, it is still deeply personal. Through God’s countless revelations to man, we get a glimpse of our awe-inspiring Creator. It is through His revelations that He has invited us into life with Him. Today, we are called to pour out our hearts in praise and thanksgiving for our Good and Gracious God and to recognize the ways in which we can encounter Him – Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

As we celebrate this glorious Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity, may we praise God in word and deed, and may we seek moments to encounter the Father, Son and Holy Spirit each day – through Scripture, prayer, sacraments and blessings throughout our day, as Jesus tells us, “I am with you always, until the end of the age.”

Families and the Gospel Matthew 28: 16-20
In today's gospel Jesus commands, "Teach them to carry out everything I have commanded you." This command is meant for every Christian. In light of this command, parenting is not only the most difficult task a person can take on, it is also one of the most apostolic and missionary tasks. Jesus commands all parents to teach their children "all that I have commanded you."
