EASTER SUNDAY OF THE RESURRECTION OF OUR LORD

- FIRST READING: Peter is an eyewitness: The Lord is risen (Acts 10:34a, 37-43).
- PSALM: This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad (Psalm 118).
- SECOND READING: All who are baptized, set your hearts in heaven (Colossians 3:1-4).
- GOSPEL: Three witnesses, Mary, Peter, and John; each responds to the empty tomb (John 20:1-9)

LITURGICAL REFLECTION: EVERYTHING IS CHANGED
Easter changes everything. Having been raised from the dead, Jesus shatters the frightful images that haunt humanity. Betrayal, torture, crucifixion, death, burial—these terrors pale in the brilliant glory of Jesus resurrected. Today’s psalm guides our response to God’s power: “it is wonderful in our eyes.” Today is indeed a day for wonder, for gasping in astonishment at Jesus’ resurrection. For all of human history, death had been final. In the Acts of the Apostles, though, Peter testifies that Jesus, who was publicly executed, was raised to life by God. John’s Gospel admits that the disciples “did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead.” Even Jesus’ closest friends were not expecting this innovation: life after death. In response to the Easter miracle, Paul tells us to become “a fresh batch of dough.” Everything, even our very selves, must become new. Easter changes everything.

Stewardship Reflection:

He is risen! He is truly risen! This is what the celebration of Easter is all about – the truth that Jesus was crucified for our sins and three days later rose from the dead, conquering death once and for all. We proclaim this truth every Sunday in the Nicene Creed: “For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate, He suffered death and was buried and rose again on the third day, in accordance with the Scriptures.” Amazing!

We know it’s true, but this Easter Sunday, let’s ask ourselves if we live as if it’s true. Do we simply recite this portion of our Creed week after week, or do we live as witnesses to this glorious reality? And how are we, as Christian stewards, to live as a ‘witness’ all these years later without firsthand knowledge?

We may have to look a little more closely to ‘bear witness’, but if we try then we can have just as real an experience of the empty tomb and the redeeming power of the Resurrection.

We become witnesses of His glory when we: prayerfully read the Scriptures knowing they are a living love letter from God with a message to each one of us, each time we receive the precious Body and Blood of our Lord in the Eucharist, when we experience His personal and healing power in our hearts during Reconciliation, and when we pour out our lives in loving service to those around us and experience the deep satisfaction that only comes when we are imitating our Saviour. This Easter, don’t just recite the Creed – resolve to live as if it’s true. Experience Jesus for yourself every day from now on. You will be a powerful witness to the truth that He is risen! He is truly risen!

Next week there will be a sign-up sheet in the back of church to celebrate the 65th Anniversary of Fr Balestino’s Ordination to the Priesthood. A Mass will be held on Sunday, May 25th at 2:30pm at St Therese with a dinner to follow immediately after at the Social Hall. The sign-up sheet will be in the church until Sunday, May 4th

REGINA CAELI – The Regina Caeli is said beginning Easter Sunday until Pentecost. It is said standing:

- V. Queen of Heaven, rejoice! Alleluia.
- R. For He whom you merited to bear, Alleluia
- V. Has risen, as He said, Alleluia
- R. Pray for us to God, Alleluia
- V. Rejoice and be glad, O Virgin Mary, Alleluia!
- R. For the Lord has truly risen, Alleluia.

Let us Pray: O God, who through the resurrection of Your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, has given joy to this world; grant, we beseech You, that through the intercession of the Virgin Mary, His Mother, we may attain the same joys of eternal life. Through the same Christ, Our Lord. Amen

Follow Me.

Thank you to the families who have pledged as of March 31 a total of $2,230 towards our target amount of $8,800. Through it, your sacrificial gifts of prayer and treasure will make an immediate impact on Ministries that care for the poor, strengthen family life, nurture our youth, and provide leadership development for clergy and laity. Please prayerfully consider making a pledge according to your means so we will be able to reach that target.

You may return your pledge card and donation through the mail, make your payment online, or drop your pledge card and donation tin in the collection.
All funds over our target will be returned to St. Anne’s Parish.

Dear Parishioners,

Our Blessed Mother stood by the cross and understands the meaning of the cross. And tradition tells us the risen Lord appeared to her first at the resurrection. She stands by each of us when we are frightened, confused, and troubled to help us see beyond any darkness and night to the light of her Son's glorious resurrection.

May Mary stand by you to help you understand the mystery of the cross in your lives and to grasp the meaning and hope in the resurrection. And may we bring that hope into a world that needs to see the light of Jesus Christ risen from the dead.

May the Risen Lord shine on you and your loved ones this Easter Season and always.

ABORTION: God alone is the Lord of life from its beginning until its end: no one can under any circumstance claim the right directly to destroy an innocent human being.

Families and the Gospel: (John 20: 1-9)

Millions of Christians around the world celebrate the Resurrection today. It all began simply on the first Easter with one person telling another: "Mary told Peter" and "they believed." Faith is passed one person to another; it is caught, not taught and parents are the most effective persons to pass faith to their children
