TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

August 24, 2025

FIRST READING: Brothers and sisters of every race and language will be brought to Jerusalem (Isaiah 66:18-21).

PSALM: Go out to all the world and tell the Good News (Psalm 117).

SECOND READING: Be strong and endure your trials as the “discipline” of a loving God, for it will result in the peaceful fruit of righteousness (Hebrews 12:5-7, 11-13).

GOSPEL: People from east and west, north and south, recline at table in the kingdom of God (Luke 13:22-30).

LITURGICAL REFLECTION: GOD’S PEOPLE GATHER

Our readings today remind us of the larger story of the Bible, of God’s purposes and promises for the world. Because of humanity’s rejection of God, as told in Genesis, human communities were first dispersed. Isaiah proclaims that one day God will gather these communities to be healed and reconciled with God. In Luke’s Gospel, Jesus echoes Isaiah and teaches that all peoples in God’s promised future “will recline at table in the kingdom of God.” Notice that in Isaiah, the nation’s coming to God do not lose their ethnicity or unique identity. They bring their own distinct cultural gifts to God’s table. Each people has its unique history with God, has received distinct blessings from God, and each is accountable to God. Today, we live in a global and multi-cultural Church. When God’s diverse peoples gather in worship today, may we honor and celebrate each other’s gifts and blessings. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Whether it is a child discovering Christ in a classroom, a future seminarian answering God's vocation call to the priesthood, or a family receiving hope during hardship - you make it possible. We would like to thank the 61 families who have pledged a total of $11,380.00 towards our target amount of $25,800. Please prayerfully consider making a pledge according to your means so we will be able to reach that target. You have until Dec 31st 2025 to pay your pledge in full. Families and the Gospel -(Luke 12: 49-53)
Today Jesus warns us his Word will create conflict between parents and children. In a permissive society which advocates individualism and consumerism, parents must continue to teach and live the gospel values of respect, service to others, forgiveness, generosity and compassion. A Christian family is a countercultural family.
