Today’s Scripture Readings

- FIRST READING:

The souls of the just are in the hands of God, and no torment shall touch them (Wisdom 3:1-9 (1)).
- PSALM:

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want (Psalm 23).
- SECOND READING:

Hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts (Romans 5:5-11)
- GOSPEL

This is the will of the Father, that everyone who sees the Son and believes may have eternal life (John 6:37-40(8)).

LITURGICAL REFLECTION This year All Souls’ Day falls on a Sunday. Catholics traditionally pray for the dead that they find mercy and peace with God. In the earthly liturgy we take part in a foretaste of that heavenly liturgy celebrated in the holy city of Jerusalem. At Mass we sing a hymn to the Lord’s glory with the whole company of heaven, venerating the memory of the saints and hoping for some part and fellowship with them. The liturgy is the source for achieving in the most effective way possible human sanctification. We pray that our dead be with God in heaven.

Stewardship Reflections:

On this sacred day, the Church invites us to remember and pray for all the faithful departed – those who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith. It is a day of profound connection, when the veil between heaven and earth feels especially thin.

Stewardship is rooted in gratitude, and today we give thanks for the lives of those who shaped our faith, nurtured our families, and built our communities. Their legacy is a gift we have received, and we are called to be faithful stewards of that gift by living lives of holiness, generosity, and love.

As we celebrate this day, we are reminded that stewardship is not only about what we do with our time, talent, and treasure – it is about how we care for the memory and spiritual well-being of others. Our prayers for the dead are acts of mercy, expressions of hope, and signs of our belief in the communion of saints. Let us honor the faithful departed by continuing their good works, supporting our parish communities, and living as witnesses to the Resurrection.

The AMS does not receive any funding from the government or military, and has no parishes from which to receive a weekly assessment.
