Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

FIRST READING: You humble of the land, seek justice and humility, and the Lord will be your protection (Zephaniah 2:3; 3:12-13).

PSALM: Blessed are the poor in spirit; the kingdom of heaven is theirs! (Psalm 146:6-7)

SECOND READING God chose the weak of the world, those who count for nothing, so that whoever boasts should boast in the Lord (1 Corinthians 1:26-31).

GOSPEL: Jesus taught from the mountain: Blessed are the poor in spirit (Matthew 5:1-12a).

LITURGICAL REFLECTION: THE PEOPLE OF GOD’S KINGDOM
In our Gospel reading from Matthew, we hear the Beatitudes, the stirring opening to the Sermon on the Mount. Jesus is proclaiming the coming of the kingdom of God, and begins by considering what kind of people will enter and participate in this kingdom. They are the poor in spirit, the meek, the clean of heart, the peacemakers. We hear both Zephaniah and Paul echo this, as God specifically chooses the weak and the lowly to be God’s agents in ushering in the reign of God. By living with humility and integrity, their hearts are open to being transformed by the grace of God. We too are called to live in this way. Jesus invites us to be people with open hearts, to receive God’s blessing. And working through us, God may bless all of creation. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Stewardship Reflections: Today's Gospel Reading from Matthew recounts what we know as Christ's Sermon on the Mount. This entire reflection could be devoted to that, of course, but as always, there are also messages that are important in the other readings. The Sermon on the Mount is the first of five teachings Jesus gives us in the Gospel of Matthew. The Lord gives this relatively early in His Ministry, not long after He has been baptized. In the entire New Testament this is the longest continuous section of Jesus speaking, and it is perhaps the most widely quoted part of the four Canonical Gospels. It contains, after all, the central rules of discipleship.

Today's Gospel provides us with instructions from Jesus as to what kind of people His disciples should be. There are more than enough key words on which to reflect and pray: poor, mourn, meek, hunger, mercy, peacemakers, clean and persecuted - to name a few. We could concentrate on each one, but it is worth pointing out that these all are traits the Lord calls us to.

For example, when Jesus says that to be blessed, we need to 'hunger and thirst for righteousness,' He is reminding us of what our focus in life should be. In our world people hunger for many things that may not be that important - things like power, success, wealth, possessions and comfort. The idea of being righteous in His eyes is more important than any of those.

Sincere Condolences - The St. Therese Community would like to offer our sincere condolences to the family of Donna Vitovich who was called to her eternal reward this week. May God grant His eternal rest to Donna and peace and consolation to her family. Donna was the sister of Dave Vitovich.

The St. Therese prayer shawl ministry met for their first quarterly meeting of the New Year on January 8th at 1:30pm in the church basement. Discussions included last year accomplishments as well as any ongoing and/or future projects.

Despite the small number of members of our prayer shawl ministry for our first year, 102 shawls/blankets were handmade, donated and distributed to individuals in need of Gods comfort and embrace.

Our ministry provided shawls/ blankets, that have been infused with prayers, to shut ins of the St. Therese parish, as well as to church members of both St. Anne's and St. Therese whom reside in nursing homes or personal care homes. In addition, we have given blankets/shawls to the Women's Help Center, the Somerset chapter of Project Linus, the Joyce Murtha Breast Cancer Center, and to parish members through requests.

If you know of someone in need of a prayer shawl whom is undergoing a medical procedure, grieving a loss, or in need of comfort, please contact the church office. In addition, if you have a family member or friend whom has recently been placed in a care facility, please let the church office know as well.

Thank you to everyone who supports the Prayer Shawl Ministry either through their talent and time, Dee, Elizabeth, Helen, Roberta and Vicki, and to individuals whom have provided donations of money, yarn or gift cards and to the St. Therese Christian Mothers for their recent donation to support this ministry.

If you enjoy knitting or crocheting, please consider joining us at our next meeting, which will be held in April to learn more about this fulfilling ministry or contact Debi Hubbard 814-421-2416 or email at mommyhub@atlanticbb.net A basket remains in the church vestibule for any type of donation for the prayer shawl ministry.

The Beatitudes

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

Blessed are the merciful for they will be shown mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called sons of God.

Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are you when people insult you, persecute you and falsely say all kinds of evil against you because of me.

Rejoice and be glad, because great is your reward in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.
