THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Today's Scripture Readings

FIRST READING: Elisha promises a baby son to the hospitable woman (2 Kings 4:8-11, 14-16a).

PSALM: Forever I will sing the goodness of the Lord (Psalm 89).

SECOND READING: We shall live in newness of life as Christ was raised from the dead (Romans 6:3-4, 8-11).

GOSPEL: Whoever gives but a cup of cold water to another will surely be rewarded (Matthew 10:37-42).

Norms for the Distribution and Reception of Holy Communion: The Second Vatican Council has urged that the more perfect form of participation in the Mass is that the faithful, after the priest's Communion, receive the Lord's Body from the same Sacrifice. As noted at the Council of Trent, the faithful present at each Mass, for the sake of a fuller participation in the holy Eucharist, should communicate not only by spiritual desire but also by sacramental reception of Communion. The Church strongly suggests Holy Communion given to God's people come from the altar of that Mass, and not from the reserved Sacrament in the tabernacle. Bread and wine consecrated at that Mass is ideally the Communion distributed to the faithful. C.f. General Instruction of the Roman Missal, 2011, Number 13. Norms for the Distribution and Reception of Holy Communion under Both Kinds in the Diocese of United States of America.

Stewardship Reflections:

Today's readings take us back to some basics of stewardship living. The First Reading shows us the necessity and power of hospitality. The Second Reading reminds us what it is that makes us disciples and Christian stewards in the first place (hint – it's our Baptism!) Finally, in today's Gospel, Christ teaches us how to live daily life as His stewards.

We have come full circle to the importance of hospitality, and to putting God first in our lives because we have become disciples of Christ through our Baptism. We put God first by serving others as if we were serving Christ Himself, thus losing a self-centered life and finding our true fulfillment.
