EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Today's Scripture Readings

FIRST READING: All you who thirst, come to the water! You without money, come to the feast! (Isaiah 55:1-3).

PSALM: The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs (Psalm 145).

SECOND READING: Nothing can separate us from the love of God in Christ (Romans 8:35, 37-39).

GOSPEL: All ate until satisfied; they collected twelve baskets of what was left over (Matthew 14:13-21).

LITURGICAL REFLECTION: OUR DEEPEST NEEDS – The word of God serves up a tremendous feast for us today. Isaiah beckons all who hunger and thirst to come to the Lord for satisfaction. The psalmist cries out, “The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs” (Psalm 145:16). Saint Paul tells us that nothing can separate us from the love of God. Finally, in the Gospel, we hear the story of the miraculous feeding of over five thousand people from a mere five loaves and two fish. Most of us have our material needs met on a day-to-day basis. These scriptures, nevertheless, have much to say to the contemporary believer. We must ask ourselves, “Where are my deepest hungers? Where are my thirsts?” After material needs are satisfied and, in some cases, over-satisfied, many people still experience a deep longing for spiritual balance and well-being. As the loaves and fish are multiplied in today's Gospel, perhaps our prayer can be a longing for the satisfaction of the deepest needs that only God can fill. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Stewardship Reflections:

This week we celebrate the Feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord. According to most Catholic scholars and theologians, the Transfiguration is the culminating point of the Lord's public life. His Baptism is considered to be the starting point of that public life, and the Ascension is the end.

The Transfiguration was part of an ongoing miracle. Perhaps the real miracle was the way that Jesus kept from displaying His glory most of the time. When the three apostles present became aware of the full divinity of Jesus, it is reported that "They fell prostrate and were very much afraid." Is that how we react when we become aware of the presence of God? Are we a bit fearful?

Knowing God, appreciating God, and embracing God should give us confidence. God's grace is amazing, and that needs to be our reality. Remember that Jesus is on His way to crucifixion and temporary death. We are on that same path, but the Transfiguration is a reminder to us of the hope we have in the saving grace of the Lord.

We will be hosting a group from the Holy Grotto Wood Carving group from the Holy Land on Aug 8th & 9th Christian families in the Holy Land continue the ancient tradition of carving olive wood, using trees grown in the land where Jesus lived and walked. Today, these families face great challenges, and this craft remains one of their primary sources of income. Your support through the purchase of these handmade items helps sustain their faith, their families, and their presence in the Holy Land. Thank you for standing with them in prayer and love.

A work of Faith & Hope.

Thank you to the 28 families who have pledged as of July 9th to our Catholic Ministries goal. This reflects a 32% family participation rate, an increase from last year's participation of 26%. You can still make a pledge/donation. Any funds received over our goal will continue to be returned to St. Anne's Parish.

Fishers of Men Vocation Appeal

The efforts of our vocation Office are working!

We have three new seminarians this year, which brings our total to four men in formation for the priesthood. In addition, we have launched new programs to reach young men, including the popular "Loggia Nights" at the cathedral in Altoona. Thanks be to God, we now have dozens of teens and young men who are seriously considering priesthood! To support our seminarians and these increased efforts, we truly need your financial support.

Bishop Bartchak has asked all Catholics to consider a gift that suits your financial situation.

Please make your donation online at ajvocations.org/give,

or use the envelope in your bulletin.
